To Whom it may Concern:

This letter is intended as a character reference for Abhinav Sagar, one of the most influential people in our lives. My wife, Jo-Anne, and I have known Abhi for three years, during which time Abhi has been a close personal friend of ours, as well as a respected teacher and leader. Abhi consistently demonstrates impeccable character and charisma, and it is a great honor to know him and to interact with him as a daily part of our lives.

Abhi manages and operates the Bikram Yoga studio at which we practice. He is also one of the lead instructors at the studio. Abhi is a masterful instructor, capable of guiding large groups through what is invariably a very mentally and physically challenging process. Abhi is very adept at coaxing the best performance possible out of his classes.

Socially, Abhi has much to contribute to any group with whom he involves himself. You can count on him to provide insightful, uplifting and inspirational input to your organization. In short, it is our great heartfelt honor to recommend Abhi to you.

Sincerely,
